The Mission Ministry Team would like to thank the congregation for their participation in the 2024 Missouri Festival of Sharing. We collected a total of 33 "kits" in the following categories:

Paper Products – 9
Reading and Writing Kits – 13
Personal Hygiene Kits – 6
Family Food Box – 5

Our congregational response seems to be growing a bit every year, and we are happy that these contributions have been made in our church's name on October 12th at the East Region (STL area) "Sharefest," where three of our Mission Team's members also offered their time to help facilitate the collection on that day. Your generous spirit of giving will touch human lives where there is great need. Thank you!

Senior Ministry

Please join us for "Medicare Made Easy" on October 20, immediately following church in the community room with Ted Gottlieb and Stephanie Pogue. Stephanie is with St. Louis Insurance Group and specializes in medicare. Bring any questions you may have!

Volunteers are requested for a new mission project with the Gateway Housing Service Project. This organization makes homes accessible for handicapped individuals by building wheelchair ramps, installing grab bars and making minor home modifications so clients can fully participate in their daily lives. Additional information is on their website GHSPHome.org. (Volunteer)

A team from St. John's Chesterfield will be helping GHSP crew leaders modify a home on Saturday November 2nd. The location will be in the St. Louis area and the time commitment is 8:00 AM to 3:30 PM. Similar to a Habitat for Humanity build, no experience is required and everyone on site can do something to assist. 10 volunteers are requested and there is a sign-up sheet at church. Please contact Jim Pisoni at jpisonijr@gmail.com with any questions.
